Peter I. Lippman, Reg. 22,835

SUBMISSION OF MISSING REFERENCES, AND FEE — In the November 2007 Official Action it is said that foreign patent references (cited in an October 2007 IDS) are missing from the Patent Office's file wrapper. Applicants apologize for not having sent these three European patent documents with the original October 2007 IDS submission.

Applicants thank Supervisory Patent Examiner David K. Moore for his assistance with our questions about filing those previously omitted documents for this application. As suggested by Mr. Moore, we are submitting a new IDS, which is identical to the October 2007 IDS — except that we are now including copies of the three European documents listed on the IDS that were left out of the previous submission.

A transmittal letter with authorization (in duplicate) is enclosed to charge the $180 IDS fee to the Hewlett-Packard deposit account 08-2025.

Respectfully submitted,
